

Arman Hezarkhani

25 Massachusetts Avenue
Port Jefferson Station, NY 11776
US Citizen
(631)-702-3985
armanh@andrew.cmu.edu

I am a student at Carnegie Mellon University who is passionate about technological innovation in the human experience as well as the bridge between software and hardware. I am seeking an internship.

Leadership

- Teaching Assistant for 3 AP Computer Science classes
- President of Students United for Safer Schools
- President of Comsewogue Student Technology Specialists
- Captain of Varsity Track and Field team
- Secretary of Leading and Empowering to Achieve Potential
- National Honor Society
- French Honor Society

Awards

- Balanced Man Scholarship Runner-Up
- Suffolk County Zone Award
- Senior Superlatives - Most Versatile and Most Likely to Run For Office

Skills

Programming: Java, Python
Language: English, Farsi, Basic French
Software: Sublime Text, Microsoft Office

EDUCATION

Carnegie Mellon University

Carnegie Institute of Technology – Electrical and Computer Engineering

Coursework

- 15-112: Fundamentals of Programming and Computer Science
- 18-100: Introduction to Electrical and Computer Engineering
- 33-106: Physics I for Engineering Students
- 76-101: Interpretation and Argument

Comsewogue High School

Advanced Regents Diploma – Graduated June 25, 2015

GPA: 98.68

SAT:

2210/2400

Mathematics:

800/800

Reading (Verbal):

680/800

Writing:

730/800

PERSONAL PROJECTS

- Controlled Raspberry Pi remotely using Secure Shell (SSH) to use as a local web server during testing phase of web development
- Programmed basic Android texting application in Java/HTML/XML
- Created a walking Robot using an Arduino Uno for logical computations

ACITIVITES

Comsewogue Student Technology Specialists | President

- Provided a presentation at the Comsewogue Google Symposium in front of hundreds of district administrators from New York, Connecticut, and New Jersey
- Designed a district-wide K-12 Computer Science Curriculum focusing on problem-solving skills

Varsity Track and Field | Captain

- 2x Competitor at the New Balance Indoor/Outdoor Nationals
- 2x Academic All-County Honors
- School Record Holder in the 400m Relay
- Recruited to Carnegie Mellon University as a Sprinter/Hurdler

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Robotics Club

EMPLOYMENT

Grumpy Jack's Bar and Grill
Bus Boy/Food Runner